A Prayer for all those involved in the World Cup

God of the nations, who has always called his people to be a blessing for the world, bless all who take part in the World Cup.

Smile on South Africa in her hosting, on the nations represented in competition and on those who travel to join in the party. Amen.

Our turn for collecting for the Lantern Drop-in Centre will be Sunday 27th June. Please bring along tins of food, jars of coffee, tea, cakes, biscuits, fresh fruit – or if you prefer – gifts of money for the Centre to buy what it needs

Words from a song by Crystal Lewis

I cannot bear these burdens alone
I must tell Jesus, I must tell Jesus
Jesus can help me, Jesus alone
Tempted and tried I need a great saviour
One who can help my burdens to bear
I must tell Jesus, I must tell Jesus
He all my cares and sorrows will share

The Messenger and Reminder for June/July is published today.
It is also on our Church Website as a PDF File.

Bincombe with Broadwey Upwey and Buckland Ripers

Welcome to Church today

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Please take these notes away with you

The Prayer for Today

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit
and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

Introduction to the Peace

We are all one in Christ Jesus. We belong to him through faith, heirs of the promise of the Spirit of peace.
The peace of the Risen Lord be always with you. and also with you.

COMMUNION We welcome all who are members of their own Churches to receive the sacrament at any of our Communion Services.

Today's Gospel Luke 7.36-8.3

One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, so he went to the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table. When a woman who had lived a sinful life in that town learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfume, and as she stood behind him at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them.

When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him and what kind of woman she is – that she is a sinner."

Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you."

"Tell me, teacher," he said.

"Two men owed money to a certain money-lender. One owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he cancelled the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?"

Simon replied, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt cancelled."

"You have judged correctly," Jesus said.

Then he turned towards the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet, but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. You did not give me a kiss, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing my feet. You did not put oil on my head, but she has poured perfume on my feet. Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven – for she loved much. But he who has been forgiven little loves little."

Then Jesus said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

The other guests began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

Jesus said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

After this, Jesus travelled about from one town and village to another, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him, and also some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: Mary (called Magdalene) from whom seven demons had come out; Joanna the wife of Chuza, the manager of Herod's household; Susanna; and many others. These women were helping to support them out of their own means.

Williams backs 'citizenship' alternative after 'delinquent' excesses of Tory and Labour

The Archbishop of Canterbury used his speech to the new Parliament to berate recent British governments who either 'took too much power for the state or gave too much away to unaccountable private interests'. Labelling these as 'odd growths – the delinquent children of Milton Friedman and Sidney Webb', he urged the new Coalition government, instead, to develop 'strong citizens' and 'shared dignity' in society. The new government has the chance to create strong citizens by building cooperation rather than the consumption of goods from state or private enterprise, Dr Williams said. British society needs a vision of 'shared dignity', he said, to strengthen citizens and 'enable them to use their strength for mutual care and service'.
