The Eleventh Sunday after Trinity

The Prayer for Today

God of glory,
the end of our searching,
help us to lay aside
all that prevents us from seeking your kingdom, and to give all that we have
to gain the pearl beyond all price,
through our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Readings

	Today	Next Sunday
Old Testament	Genesis 15 : 1 – 6	Jeremiah 23 : 23 – 29
Psalm	Psalm 33 : 12 – 22	Psalm 82
New Testament	Hebrews 11 : 1 – 3, 8 – 16	Hebrews 11 : 29 – 12 : 2
Gospel	Luke 12 : 32 – 40	Luke 12 : 49 – 56

We depend upon the Lord alone to save us. Only he can help us; he protects us like a shield. No wonder we are happy in the Lord! For we are trusting him. We trust his holy name. Yes, Lord, let your constant love surround us, for our hopes are in you alone.

Psalm 33 [TLB]

How to Pray Scripture

You have a need, find a scripture that covers that need (a promise of God), and pray that scripture back to The Father using Jesus' Name as the entrance to the Throne of God.

For example, I want to be a mother.

Psalm 113:9 says that "He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the LORD."

I then pray to my Father in heaven saying something like...

"Heavenly Father, I thank you that you make the barren women to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. I am thankful that this is something you have promised in Your Word and that NOTHING is impossible with You. Thank you for giving me Your peace and strength to help me until this comes to pass in my life, but Lord, not my will but Yours be done. I pray these things in Jesus' holy name. Amen."

If you can find it in the Word, and He has done it for one, He can do it for you. He is not a respecter of persons. He doesn't love any of us more than any other. It always fascinates me that He loves me that same as say the Pope or Mother Teresa, and He even loves people who to us seem, unlovable.

There are thousands of promises in the Word, you can apply this method to anything that is a biblical request. You wouldn't pray for say an adulterous affair...that is not scriptural.

Covered topics are provision, healing, deliverance, relationships, children, protection, peace, comfort, and so many others.

In His Name...
